

ARMY COMMUNITY SERVICE

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES

ACS will assist commanders in maintaining the readiness of individuals, families and communities within America's Army by developing, coordinating and delivering services which promote self-reliance, resiliency and stability during war and peace. Volunteers are a vital "link" in this chain.

ACS provides:

- Personal and professional growth
- Flexible hours
- Up to 20 hours free childcare at an hourly site each week!
*Hourly childcare applies to ACS volunteers only!
- Support for the Army family
- Knowledge, empowerment, and marketable skills

AVC will promote and strengthen volunteerism by uniting community volunteer efforts, supporting professional management, enhancing volunteer career mobility, and establishing volunteer partnerships to support individual personal growth and life-long volunteer commitment.

Unlock your potential: If you are interested in a journey towards success, volunteering with ACS is for you, or if you would like to learn more about volunteer opportunities on the island, please call our Army Volunteer Coordinator at 808.787.4227.

Volunteer Job Opportunities is published to provide individual members of the Army Community in Hawaii with a comprehensive listing of volunteer positions that are currently available. It is a product of the Hawaii Army Volunteer Programs volunteer job bank operation. This issue was prepared and issued by the Army Volunteer Corps Coordinators Office, located in building 690, 310 Brannon Road, Schofield Barracks. You can reach the Army Volunteer Corps Coordinator at 808.787.4227. The U.S. government does not necessarily express or imply an endorsement of contents or services provided.

The Soldier & Family Readiness Group (SFRG): As part of the Army Family you can contribute to your unit's overall readiness and become an essential part of the mission. Become involved in your unit's FRG. Each of these groups plays an important role in the effectiveness of a Soldier's ability to do their job. Knowing that someone will be there to lend a hand when they are away makes all the difference. By getting involved, you will meet new friends, become part of a team, and play an important role in the unit. For more information on how to start a Family Readiness Group or to find out how to join established groups check out the website www.armyfrg.org.

BOSS is a Morale, Welfare, and Recreation program for single Soldiers. Join BOSS on one of our volunteer & recreational outings. We work with groups within the community, such as March of Dimes, Big Brothers/Sisters, and Bowl Games of Hawaii. We also work with programs exclusive to our Army family and EFMP. Check the BOSS Bulletin Board at Schofield Barracks PX and our office in the Tropics. For more information: BOSS Office: 808-655-1130. <http://www.himwr.com/recreation-and-leisure/boss>

The Pantry in Kalihi needs your help to provide life-giving, nutritional food to Oahu's communities! We're on a mission to provide nutritious food to the hungry in Hawaii. As Hawaii's innovative food pantry, we're helping more than 11,000 of the most vulnerable adults, keiki and kupuna put food on their table each month. Let's work together to be a reliable source of nutritional food for Oahu's communities. To get involved as an organization Contact Leona at Volunteer@thepantry.org. To volunteer as an individual Simply register online at thepantry.org/volunteer/. We'll reach out to you to get you signed up for a shift. VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES

LOCAL ORGANIZATIONS

Kokua Hawaii Foundation – Kokua Learning Farm:

Help supports environmental education in the schools and communities of Hawai'i. Our mission is to provide students with experiences that will enhance their appreciation for and understanding of their environment so they will be lifelong stewards of the earth. We support hands-on learning activities that engage their senses and make lasting impressions on children's minds. We believe our keiki are the seeds of change to preserving and protecting our beautiful islands.

- KHF hosts monthly public community workdays, as well as private group and individual volunteer opportunities at the Kōkua Learning Farm.
- Kōkua Learning Farm Community Workdays (open to the public) take place on the first Saturday of each month from 9:00am-11:30am. Projects may involve mulching, weeding, opala collection, nursery work, planting and harvesting. Register here to join a Kōkua Learning Farm Community Workday.

If you are an individual who would like to volunteer at the farm on weekdays, please contact volunteer@kokuahawaiifoundation and we will work with you to find the best fit. Kokua Hawaii Foundation, 66-71 Achiu Lane, Hale'iwa, Hawaii 96712, (808) 638-5145

DO YOU OR SOMEONE YOU KNOW NEED TRANSPORTATION FRIENDS FOR KŪPUNA? VOLUNTEERS NEEDED!

Catholic Charities Hawai'i provides services to tens of thousands of people in need each year. Serving Hawai'i since 1947, we offer help and hope to people of all faiths and cultures, especially those with the greatest need. Programs and services statewide address many social and behavioral areas of need that people living in Hawai'i face each and every day.

Transportation Friends for Kūpuna matches volunteer seniors to provide free transportation and/or chaperone assistance to seniors who live alone, have mobility issues, and minimal support so that kūpuna can continue living independently.

To become a volunteer: (808) 527-4783 or www.CatholicCharitiesHawaii.org
