Multidisciplinary Inclusion Action Team (MIAT)

WHAT IS MIAT?

The Multidisciplinary Inclusion Action Team (MIAT) is a regulatory process to assess requirements that support children/youth with special needs requesting child care/ youth supervision options in Army Child & Youth Services (CYS).

The MIAT team include parents or guardians; ACS Exceptional Family Member Program (EFMP); Army Public Health Nurse (APHN); Child & Youth Services (CYS) designee; and other appropriate medical personnel that work together to address placement of children.

What is the Parent's Role?

Parent participation is crucial. You will be informed of the date, time and location of the MIAT. In order to assist with this placement process you may be asked to provide information that may include: medical documentations, statements of illnesses, allergies, reactions and treatment, copies of the Individualized Family Services Plan (IFSP), Individualized Education Plan (IEP), and Behavioral Support Plans (BSP). All of these items may be needed to facilitate the MIAT process.

MIAT Procedures

Parent will complete a CYS Health/Development Screening, DA Form 7725. If the parent checks "yes" on the Health Screening/Development Screening Form, a Medical Action Plan (MAP) and/or Special Diet Statement will be provided to the parent (as needed). The MAP/Special Diet Statement would need to be filled out and completed by a physician before returning the forms to Parent Central Services.

Parent Central Services will then forward the Health/Developmental Screening Form and completed MAP/Special Diet Statement or any Health Screening Forms with medications listed, or any other medical conditions or therapies disclosed by the individual completing the Health/Developmental Screening Form to APHN and EFMP for review and recommendations.

In the meeting, the MIAT team will discuss recommendations for creating an developmentally appropriate environment; taking into consideration any health, developmental, physical, social, emotional, learning, and behavioral issues that affect your child. This will help determine how CYS can best meet his or her needs.

Multidisciplinary Inclusion Action Team (MIAT) Continued

Who may be referred for a MIAT meeting?

Some examples of MIAT referrals are children with (but not limited to):

- Asthma
- Allergies
- Diabetes
- Seizure Disorders
- Epilepsy
- Autism
- Down Syndrome
- Behavioral Concerns
- Physically Challenged
- Learning Disabilities
- Sensory Impairment (Hearing/Vision)

Respite Care

U.S. Army Garrison, Hawaii

Respite Care

The Purpose of Respite Care

The Army recognizes that caring for a Family Member with severe special needs can be emotionally and physically challenging, especially with a unique military lifestyle. Through the Exceptional Family Member Program (EFMP), respite care is provided to eligible Families, for twenty-five hours a month, to allow the primary caregiver relief to address personal needs or the needs of other Family Members. Respite Care allows the primary caregiver time to rest and reenergize so that he or she can return to caring for their loved one.

How to Apply

Respite Care Eligibility:

- The Family Member with special needs must be registered in the Exceptional Family Member Program (EFMP).
- Must reside with the Service Member (SM), with the exception of when the SM is on an unaccompanied tour/ geographically separated (copy of PCS orders are required).
- Must have a qualifying medical condition.
- Must not be receiving Tricare ECHO respite care, state, or private insurance respite care support.

Initial required documents (available at Army Community Service (ACS) Exceptional Family Member Program office) include:

- A completed, stamped, and signed DA Form 4700 — Medical Record-Supplemental Medical Data — by the physician who has medical knowledge of the Exceptional Family Member (EFM) with special needs.
- A completed DA Form 5189 — Application for Respite Care for Children and Adults.
- A completed and signed DD Form 2870 — Authorization for Disclosure of Medical or Dental Information

Once completed, all three forms must be submitted to the ACS EFMP office. The forms will be reviewed by a medical physician to ensure medical criteria is met as established by Army Medical Command (MEDCOM) and provide recommendations as to level of care.

Respite Care (Continued)

The Family will be asked to complete a personal interview with the ACS EFMP staff and complete additional documents.

The Review Process

The completed respite care application package will be reviewed by a respite care panel consisting of the EFMP Manager, the ACS Chief or appointee, an independent medical physician, and an Army Family Life Chaplain. The panel will provide recommendations as to level of care.

With the recommendations from the respite care panel, the Garrison Commander will have final approving authority on all respite care applications. Families will be notified telephonically and by postal mail as to the status of their application.

The entire process can take an average of 90 days to complete. Once approved, respite care eligibility will be effective for one year. Families will be responsible for reapplying annually or their care will automatically be discontinued.

Eligible Level III and Level IV EFMs will receive a flat twenty-five hours, monthly.

Care Providers

ACS EFMP provides administrative support to the respite care program. Respite care providers are contracted through Strategic Resources, Inc., (SRI).

Levels of Care Provided

Depending upon the eligible EFMs needs, there are two levels of respite care provided.

Level III – Significant medical conditions that require coordination of care by health care providers, ancillary services, or others in order to sustain a reasonable level of health. Conditions at this level of care include but are not limited to: recurrent and unstable seizure activity that requires close monitoring for safety; uncontrolled, unstable insulin dependent diabetes in an individual, regardless of age, or newly diagnosed insulin dependent diabetes in a child under five years of age; significant advanced multiple sclerosis with ambulation and safety needs, and those who need special assistance with food intake.

Level IV – Conditions at this level of care include but are not limited to: severe continuous seizure activity, tube feeding via a feeding pump, suctioning of tracheotomy with suction equipment, monitoring of home apnea monitor and home ventilator, and conditions which require extensive Family involvement in care giving.

Respite Care Levels III and IV contemplate a level of training and care giving that goes beyond conditions that only require constant supervision based on uncontrolled behavior with safety issues including EFMs prone to elopement or inability to comprehend dangerous actions. Autism (even severe autism) do not rise to a Respite Care Level III or IV. There must be other significant medical conditions as stated above.
